First Reformed Church, Miamisburg, Ohio.

REV. H. M. HERMAN, D. D., PASTOR.

HIS church was dedicated to the service of God, Sunday, June 1, 1903. The sermon was preached by the pastor, at the request of the congregation. The pastors of the city participated in the service. In the erection of the church, at a cost of nearly $25,000.00, there was no subscription taken, or any soliciting other than merely asking for the Lord's portion. The people responded cheerfully and liberally, and when dedication day came, the church was given to the Lord free of debt, and a margin over.

The present pastorate began August 17, 1881, with 124 members. There are now 523 members, also an active C. E. Society, Ladies' Aid Society, and Home and Foreign Missionary Societies. During the pastorate, the congregation contributed (including the construction of new building, repairs on the old, and in sustaining the various agencies of the church) over $100,000.00. Peace and prosperity prevail.

What the Voice Said.

Thou hast seen two streamlets gushing
From one fountain, clear and free,
But by widely varying channels
Searching for the sea.

Glideth one through greenest valleys,
Kissing them with lips still sweet;
One, mad roaring down the mountains,
Stagnates at their feet.

—Whittier.

Oldest Reformed Congregation in Ohio.

Springboro (Ohio) Reformed Church.

THIS congregation was organized in the beginning of 1804 (exact date not known). Rev. I. H. Reiter, D. D., a former pastor and historian of the Reformed Church, compiled the history of the congregation during his pastorate of the church. In that record he says: "It is safe to say that the congregation was organized some time between January and May, 1804, and may properly date from February, 1804, and its centennial may be celebrated with propriety in February, 1904." The history also states that the first sermon on record preached by the Rev. Jacob Christman, the first pastor and founder of the church, was on January 29, 1804, and that the first communion was administered on May 29, 1804.

In 1805 a rude log church was erected at Salem, two and one-half miles from Springboro, in 1824 a more modern frame church was erected about one mile north of the log church, and one and one-half miles from Springboro; in the year 1862, under the pastorate of Rev. Isaac H. Reiter, D. D., the present brick church at Springboro was erected.

The following ministers have served the congregation: Revs. Jacob Christman, 6 years, 1804-1810; John Jacob Larose, 5 years, 1810-1815; Thomas Winters, 20 years, 1816-1836; Elijah Kuhns, 4 years, 1837-1841; George Long, 9 years, 1842-1851; William K. Zieber, 2½ years, 1852-1854; Isaac H. Rieter, 15½ years, 1854-1870; William Shumaker, 6½ years, 1870-1876; Richard B. Reichard, 5½ years, 1876-1882; William H. Shults, 5½ years, 1882-1888; B. Frank Davis, 3¾ years, 1888-1891; Albert Klinger, 6½ years, 1892-1899; Solomon U. Snyder, 2½ years, 1899-1901; Robert J. Hill, October 26, 1902.

Rev. Robert J. Hill, the present pastor, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 20, 1872. After spending fifteen years at the printing business, he began to prepare for the ministry. Graduated from Temple College, Philadelphia, in 1899, and from Ursinus Theological Seminary in 1902. Was licensed by the Philadelphia Classis, May 16, 1902.

Emanuel Reformed Church Near Bluffton, Ohio.

EMANUELS congregation was organized by Rev. Geo. Spangler as a Lutheran and Reformed union congregation, 1842. Services were held for a while in private houses, then for a number of years in a small school-house. The congregation was served by the following ministers: Geo. Spangler, A. Doner, C. H. Paff, J. Klingler, J. Reiter, Peter Greding, C. Pluess, Abr. Schneck, H. Rusterholz, G. Kuhlen, P. Greding (second time), temporary by C. Badertscher, and since October, 1901, by the present pastor, C. Schmitt.

In the year 1860 the Reformed members under the pastorate of Rev. P. Greding, reorganized as a Reformed congregation, secured a piece of ground and built a brick church generally known as the Riley Creek Church, which served as a place of worship for forty-two years. Soon after the beginning of the present pastorate it became evident that this church was entirely too small, and though being very much in need of repair it was considered useful. It was then on the sixth day of May, 1902, that Providence prepared the way for a new structure by sending a whirlwind which damaged the old building so badly that it was not considered advisable to repair it.

The congregation decided to build a new church some further from the railroad in a beautiful grove. The corner-stone was laid August 26, 1902, and the new church dedicated May 24, 1903. It is a modest, yet substantial and commodious structure built of stone and pressed brick, of modern gothic style and architecture. The building, with furniture, represents a value of about $8,000.

St. Paul Reformed Church.

THE history of St. Paul Reformed Church, of Emporia, Kansas, commences with the first of January, 1879, when Rev. L. C. Edmonds was commissioned by the Eastern Synod's Board. He preached a few times in the Welsh Presbyterian Church, but finding small encouragement, soon ceased his labors. Rev. J. G. Shumaker, after visiting the field and making investigation, became missionary under the Tri-Synodic Board, August 1, 1879. Services were held in the court house.

On December 23, 1879, the congregation was organized with a membership of twenty-seven. Preparations were soon made to build a church. The pastor spent some time in the east and solicited aid to the amount of $1,000. On January 23, 1881, a brick church 30 x 50 feet was dedicated, having been completed at a cost of $3,000, leaving a debt of $600. Rev. D. B. Shuey was missionary from May 1, 1883, to May 3, 1885. Previous to his coming here he raised money in the East to pay the debt of $600 on the church, and to build a home which was deeded to the Board of Missions. Rev. Shuey was called to the superintendency of missions, and Rev. S. S. Myers became pastor

October 1, 1885, and continued until December 31, 1885. The mission was without a pastor until 1897, having only occasional service by Rev. D. B. Shuey. The congregation lost much during that long vacancy, but there was a faithful band that would not give up the work, and in December, 1897, Rev. G. W. Remagen began work and continued until April 1, 1898. Rev. L. S. Faust, the present pastor, began work September 1, 1898. It has been marked with more or less difficulty. The old church showed signs of decay which soon came to the point of danger, when it must be torn down and a new one erected.

The new building, when all completed, will cost about $4,500.

REV. D. A. SOUDERS.

Superintendent of New Home Mission District.

REV. D. A. SOUDERS, the superintendent of our New Home Mission District, is the son of David and Hannah Souders, and was born in the city of Reading, Pa. His parents were members of the First Reformed Church, where Rev. Souders was baptized in his infancy. He spent his early years in the country near New Jerusalem, in Berks County. He was confirmed by Rev. J. S. Herman, and continued a communicant member of the church at New Jerusalem until he went to college. His preparatory course was taken at Oley Academy, Friedensburg, Pa., under the instruction of Rev. D. E. Schoedler. The incentive to enter the ministry was given by his maternal grand-uncle, the Rev. Peter S. Fisher, but for a time his preference was for teaching. He entered the sophomore class of Franklin and Marshall College in 1879, and was graduated in 1882.

The year following he taught in the Preparatory Department of college, and entered the Seminary in 1883, graduating in 1886. Soon after graduating he accepted a call from the Union Bridge Charge in Carroll County, Md., where he continued till 1891, when he removed to the Irwin Charge in Westmoreland County, Pa. Soon after coming to Irwin he became a member of a committee to raise the Endowment Fund for the Seminary Professorship. This work afforded an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with the church work in Pittsburg Synod, and the many opportunities for Home Mission work. His interest in missions has grown ever since. Pittsburg Synod honored him with an election on its Board of Missions, and re-elected him after the expiration of the term. He still continues a member of this Board, and by their recommendation was referred to the General Board to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Superintendent Dechant, and was assigned to the new district of Pittsburg and Ohio Synods. He assumed the duties of his office on June 1, 1902, and since then has been visiting missions, investigating places for new missions, and preaching to establish congregations to awaken deeper interest, and secure more funds for this worthy cause.

In a recent address he said: "We have been doing well in the work so far, but compared with what we need to do, and what we can do, it has not been mission work, but mission play. He asks for the cause careful, earnest study, sincere and devout prayers, and more liberal contributions.

A Dream.

"The Night is mother of the Day,
The Winter of the Spring,
And ever upon old Decay,
The greenest mosses cling.
Behind the cloud the starlight lurks,
Through showers the sunbeams fall;
For God who loveth all His works,
Has left His Hope with all."

Reformed Church, Marion, Ohio.

THE Reformed Church in Marion, O., dates back to about 1843. For about forty years services were held in a small brick church on North State Street, which was owned in common with the Lutheran congregation. In 1883 the Reformed people sold their interest to the Lutherans for $450, and secured a lot on West Street, now South Prospect. A modest frame building was erected under the pastorate of Rev. Frederick Schaad, which served the congregation as a church home for about nineteen years.

In 1901 the present beautiful structure was erected. It is a modern, and in every way a very conveniently arranged building with all modern improvements. The picture above gives an idea of the general outside appearance.

The church property, including the parsonage, represents a value of about $14,000.

The small congregation has seen days of toil and struggle, but at present enjoys a prosperous condition with good hopes for the future.

The following pastors have served the congregation: G. Ruhl, J. Winter, Schroth, Schaad, Schroth, Gross, Witthoff, and since December, 1902, W. A. Settlage.

Thirteen on Our Twenty-five Cent Piece.

A writer in The New York Sun has this to say about the thirteen superstition and our twenty-five-cent piece:

"Superstitious people, and there are a great many of them, always regard the number thirteen as being unlucky. They will never undertake to start anything new on the thirteenth of the month; you couldn't pay them to spend a night in a hotel room with the number thirteen on the door; likewise they wouldn't sit down to dinner if there were already twelve at the table; yet these same superstitious people will carry any number of quarter dollars in their pockets without the least fear.

"If they will take one of their numerous quarters and look at the 'tail' side, they will notice that there are thirteen stars; the motto E Pluribus Unum contains thirteen letters; the shield is made up of thirteen bars; in one claw the eagle is holding thirteen arrows, in the other claw there are thirteen leaves on the small branch. Below all these thirteens the value of the coin is given as 'Quarter Dollar;' this also contains thirteen letters. Here we have in all six thirteens on the coin."

Conversation is becoming a lost art; the art of speaking aptly and with grace should be cultivated as assiduously as the art of writing correct English. You speak with a man ten times for once that you write to him.

St. John Reformed Church, Lewisburg, Pa.

R. LEIGHTON GERHART, D. D., PASTOR.

FOR many years the Reformed and Lutheran congregations of Lewisburg, Pa., worshiped God as a union church. In 1845 the union was dissolved, and each congregation proceeded to build its own house of worship. St. John has had a number of notable men among its pastors. Among these may be named Drs. Heysler, Reiley, Leinbach, Harbaugh and Bausman. About eighteen months ago the old church, erected in 1847, was razed, and the work of building a new edifice begun. This new church was dedicated on the 12th of July, 1903, with impressive services. The style is Old English Perpendicular Gothic; the material is pressed brick with foundation and finishings of Hummelstown brown stone. The interior is finished in red-oak, hard-wood finish. The fresco is a soft olive and terra cotta. The chancel contains a pulpit, altar, bronze eagle lectern, white marble baptismal font, and two massive oak chairs. The glass of the windows is opalescent, the three largest in figure work. The organ ranks as the finest in the town, and there are five others. In addition to the main auditorium the building contains Sunday-school and infant-school rooms, pastor's study, ladies' parlor, library, four class rooms, and two toilet rooms. The church has been praised almost beyond measure for its completeness and the harmony and beauty of its finish. The total cost was about $24,000.

Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

The Lord will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

—Prov. 10: 2, 3.

Prof. Charles J. Bushnell, Ph. D.

Fills New Chair of History and Economics in Heidelberg University.

STUDENTS and friends of Heidelberg University will be glad to hear of the election of Prof. C. J. Bushnell to the new chair of History and Economics. Dr. Bushnell comes to this important work with the very best preparation. He studied in the University of Chicago seven years, where he achieved the distinction indicated by frequent honorable mention, five scholarships, the fellowship in Sociology and the Doctor's degree. During the last two years he has been teaching in Albany College. Of his work there, the president, Wallace H. Lee, says: "His scholarship and ability to teach have been of the highest order. He has shown considerable originality in study and research, and has presented matters in his line with a freshness and vigor that have made a strong impression on us all. He is a faithful, consistent member of the church, teaching a class in the Sabbath-school and a Bible class in college. His influence has always been on the right side morally, and has materially aided me in building up a Christian college."

Dr. Bushnell will fill the new chair which has just been established in the University, to be known as "History and Economics." He will present, along with the usual work, courses in International Law, American History and Sociology. He was chosen from a large number of applicants, because of his marked ability in this very popular and important field of study. He is distinctly a specialist, and will be a valuable addition to the strong teaching force of the University.

The woman who carries herself well is more apt to command respect than the woman who trudges along with her head inclined forward and her shoulders in a drooping position. The possessor of a graceful, erect carriage unconsciously impresses us as having characteristic worth, says the Pittsburg Observer. There are many noble-hearted women who really do themselves injustice by the awkward way they carry themselves. It is very hard for others to see beauty and grace of heart in an unlovely outward appearance. It is the exterior charm of the rose that gives hidden expression to its hidden sweetness. Although there are many beautiful women with worthless hearts, still that fact does not weaken the other fact that spiritual nobleness and a fair body are a consistent, harmonious association. Everything that appertains to the elevation of the soul affects for the better the aspect of the body, beautifying and refining it. Just as rare jewels need caskets to rest in, so it is only meet that lovely souls should be inclosed in bodies that are beautiful and fair.

Character must be kept bright as well as clean.—Lord Chesterfield.

M. E. Graber.

MR. M. E. GRABER came to Heidelberg University from Mt. Eaton, Wayne County, Ohio. While in college he took a classical course, specializing in pure and applied mathematics. In 1901 he was graduated as valedictorian of his class with special mention in mathematics. Since that time he has pursued graduate work in mathematics and philosophy in the University, and theology in the Seminary, teaching more or less all the time. In the summer of 1903 he was instructor in Latin, Greek and mathematics in H. U. Summer School, and was also appointed Instructor in Mathematics and University Physics for the academic year, in which capacity he is now serving.

Prof. Martin Osterholm, Ph. D.

Prof. Martin Osterholm has been elected to fill the chair of Modern Languages in Heidelberg University. Dr. Osterholm was selected from a long list of applicants, including men from Berlin, Paris and Genoa. He is a German-Swede by birth, and, of course, speaks fluently the language he teaches. He has been in this country about twenty years, long enough to become thoroughly Americanized. He comes to Heidelberg from the Lutheran College at Carthage, Illinois, where he has been teaching since 1890. He is not only thoroughly competent for his work, but he is a Christian, and is in fullest sympathy with the ideals of the Christian college. In addition to the German and French taught in the past, Dr. Osterholm will also offer courses in Spanish.

A Song of Hope.

Back of the gloom—
The bloom!

Back of the strife—
Sweet life,

And flowering meadows that glow and gleam,
Where the winds sing joy and the daisies dream.
And the sunbeams color the quickening clod,
And faith in the future, and trust in God.

Back of the gloom—
The bloom!

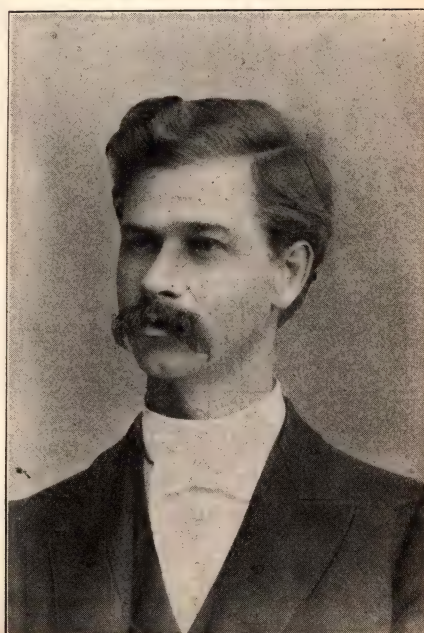

Fronting the night—
The light!

Under the snows—
The rose!

And the vales sing joy to the misty hills,
And the wild winds ripple it down the rills;
And the far stars answer the song that swells
With all the music of all the bells!

Fronting the night—
The light!

Stev. P. Harsanyi.

STEV. P. HARSANYI is one of our youngest Magyar missionaries. He was born October 13, 1873, at Turkeve, Hungary. It became almost a law of his family, since generations, to educate their sons for the ministry. One of his ancestors, whose name was Stephanus Harsanyi also, was sold as a galley slave to Naples in the time of persecution, because he would not give up the Reformed faith of which he was a minister. It is an interesting fact that at the present time there are seven ordained ministers in his family. His brother, Rev. Alex Harsanyi, is our missionary also, occupying the missionary station at Homestead, Pa.

Stev. P. Harsanyi received his education at Debrecen in the historically famous Reformed Collegium. Debrecen is the largest Reformed centre in Hungary, therefore it is called Calvinistic Rome. The majority of our Magyar missionaries are graduated from Debrecen. Our new brother tried to break away from the family tradition, and after half a year soldiering in the old country he studied medicine at the Magyar Royal University of Budapest. After his graduation he made a short trip visiting the capitals of Europe, then crossed the ocean and came to Chicago for his home, where he practiced among the Magyars, doing active missionary work in his brother's congregation, preaching occasionally as a layman, leading the chorus and the Sunday-school, and in the meantime attending the Hahweman Medical College, making a special study in the Homeopathic system. Spending a year at Chicago, he left for New York, where he was offered a position of editorship for the Magyar Nemzeter, which was the oldest Magyar newspaper in the United States. In the great metropolis he got reckless; the Spanish-American war broke out, and the patriotic feeling gave a new turn to his life. He went out with the U. S. A. to the Philippines; there he spent three long years full of danger and experience in the medical corps of our army, making short visits to Hawaii Islands, and the different islands of our new possessions in those far-away lands. During his army life he learned the English, Spanish and Tagalog languages. After a visit in Japan he came back, rich in experience, to San Francisco, and from there to Chicago. His former missionary work, and especially his personal acquaintance with heathen lands, made him think more and more to use his large experience exclusively for the spreading of the holy gospel, and consecrate his whole life to the ministry. Finally he entered at the McCormick Seminary of Chicago, and from there he went to Tiffin, O., as a theological student.

Beside pursuing his studies he was an active missionary also. In October, 1902, he organized the Magyar congregation at Dayton, O., the George Washington Society, and a Reading Club at Dayton, which is in a flourishing condition, and is a nucleus of the first Magyar Y. M. C. A.

In March he was called to Toledo, where a large Magyar Reformed congregation was without a minister for years. Here he put new life into church matters, and under his personal supervision there he started to build a beautiful large stone church, the corner-stone laying of which was in last September. In May, 1903, he was ordained for the ministry.

Daniel Miller.

DANIEL MILLER was born in Lebanon County, Pa., as the son of Henry and Sabina Miller. His early years were spent upon the farm, attending the country schools during the winter. At the age of fifteen years he entered the printing office of John Young & Co., in Lebanon, Pa., and remained ten years in the same. In the summer of 1863, a short time before the battle of Gettysburg, he enlisted in the Pennsylvania Emergency Army, and served several months until honorably discharged.

On January 1, 1869, Mr. Miller removed to the city of Reading, and commenced the publication of the Republicano von Berks, a German weekly, which he edited and published over thirty years. On April 1, 1888, he established the Reformed Church Record, which at once attained a large circulation, and is still in a prosperous condition. He has also published many books which have been widely circulated. During more than thirty years Mr. Miller served as publishing agent of the Reformirte Hausfreund, whose editor is Dr. B. Bausman.

In early life Mr. Miller was confirmed as a member of the Reformed Church, by Dr. J. W. Kelsner, in Lebanon. Upon his removal to Reading, he united with the First Church, and afterward transferred his membership to the new St. Paul Church, of which he is still a member. In the three churches named he frequently served as deacon and elder, and several times as a delegate to the Eastern Synod, and to three sessions of the General Synod.

On June 9, 1865, Mr. Miller was married to Miss Sarah Keller, of Hill Church. She died in January, 1902. Four children were born to them. One of these is Rev. Henry K. Miller, since 1892 a Reformed missionary in Japan.

A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever.

A thing of beauty is a joy forever.
Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness, but still will keep
A bower quiet for us, and a sleep
Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

Therefore, on every morrow are we wreathing
A flowery band to bind us to the earth,
Spite of despondence, of the inhuman dearth
Of noble natures, of the gloomy days,
Of all the unhealthy and o'er-darkened ways
Made for our searchings. Yes, in spite of all,
Some shape of beauty moves away the pall
From our dark spirits. Such the sun, the moon,
Trees old and young, sprouting a shady boon
For simple sleep; and such are daffodils
With the green world they live in; and clear rills

That for themselves a cooling covert make
'Gainst the hot season; the midforest brake,
Rich with a sprinkling of fair musk-rose blooms,
And such, too, is the grandeur of the dooms
We have imagined for the mighty dead;
All lovely tales that we have heard or read,
An endless fountain of immortal drink,
Pouring unto us from the heaven's brink.

—John Keats.

A religious man who believes earnestly in his religion is an inspiration. Religion under these circumstances is good and true; only when it is half-hearted and conventional do outsiders have cause to question it.

Dr. P. C. Prugh.

ONE of the oldest and most widely known of all the ministers of the Reformed Church is Rev. Dr. P. C. Prugh, of Butler, Pa. He was born on a farm near Dayton, Ohio, in the year 1822; graduated from Marshall College, Mercersburg, Pa., in 1849, and from the Theological Seminary at the same place in 1851. He was ordained to the gospel ministry that same year by Miami Classis, Synod of Ohio, and at once entered upon his first pastorate in Xenia, Ohio. After serving this charge acceptably for twenty-one years, he engaged for a time in missionary work in the city of Cincinnati, and then became pastor of the Germantown (Ohio) Charge. In the midst of his labors in this field, having spent thirty-one years in the pastoral work of the church, he received, altogether unsolicited and unexpected, a unanimous call to become superintendent of St. Paul Orphan Home at Butler, Pa. Without having been on the ground beforehand, he accepted the call as coming from the great Head of the church, and began what proved to be the crowning work of his life in the fall of 1882.

During Dr. Prugh's administration the Butler Home was greatly enlarged and beautified, at a cost of over $15,000, all of which was paid out of the earnings of the Home. More than five hundred girls and boys have been connected with his family, for a longer or shorter period, in the twenty-one years of his service. He began his labor of love in the Home with twenty-seven children; he ended with an even hundred.

September 1, 1903, at the ripe age of eighty-one years, the Doctor laid aside the burdens and responsibilities of professional life, and will live henceforth, as long as God wills, in happy retirement on Fairview Avenue, Butler, Pa.

Rev. D. H. Leader.

Rev. D. H. Leader, the new superintendent of St. Paul Orphan Home, was born at Bedford, Pa., in 1850. He comes from ancient Reformed stock. His great-grandparents came from Germany, and were members of the church at Pottstown, Pa. Mr. Leader was reared in Altoona, Pa. His father was one of the charter members of the first mission church of that place, under the pastorate of Rev. Cyrus Cort, the first missionary. Rev. A. C. Whitmer succeeded Rev. Cort, and by him the present Superintendent of St. Paul was received into the church, induced to study for the ministry, and partly prepared for college. A strong attachment grew up between Pastor Whitmer and his pupil, and the latter feels that whatever success he has had in life is largely due to the lasting impressions for good made upon him by this pure minded and devoted pastor.

Mr. Leader entered Mercersburg College in 1873, and graduated from the Theological Department of that institution in 1879. He was licensed and ordained to the ministry the same year. He served successively the charges of Everett, DuBois, Williamsport, Saegertown, Salisbury, New Kensington, and Brush Creek, all in Pennsylvania. As much of this twenty-four years pastoral work was attended by the soliciting of funds, and the management of church building, he has had an experience that will serve him well in looking after the business part of the work of his present position.

Mr. Leader has always manifested a marked love and attachment for children, and the poor and helpless have appealed to his sympathies in a special way. He goes to the superintendency of St. Paul with the confidence and assured co-operation of his wide circle of acquaintances, and with the enthusiasm of one who expects to find in its many-sided work that which has always been congenial to his nature. He will aim to maintain the same high standard of care and culture of the children which has for so many years been a marked feature of the Home, under the faithful and efficient management of the venerable Dr. P. C. Prugh, whose retirement, on account of advanced years, made necessary the calling of a new superintendent.

The Bible has made Christian civilization. To it we owe our homes, our songs, our schools and colleges, our churches, our hospitals, our asylums, all that is tender and holy in life, and all that is precious in hope.

The Japan Mission.

SENDAI, JAPAN, October 2, 1903.

DEAR FRIENDS:

IN the name of The Japan Mission of the Reformed Church in the United States, let me cordially thank you all for your kind help in support of our Japan work, for which may our dear Lord Jesus Christ abundantly bless and reward you. You will be pleased to hear of the remarkable success we have had during past years, and especially so during this past summer. On the 7th of April, 1903, ground was broken for the new business office. It was completed and occupied on July 1, 1903. The office building is almost square, with three rooms and a fire-proof vault built of brick, in which all mission records and valuables are stored. One large room is used as a reception room and for holding all mission meetings. Rev. W. E. Lampe occupies one small room for a business office used in building the present buildings, and my room is the one in front with the bay-windows.

The new dormitory for the Girls' School was finished and school opened on September 11, 1903, with 133 girls in attendance. This building is built shaped like the letter E, making it possible for every room to have sun during some part of the day. The rooms upstairs are all sleeping-rooms to accommodate a few over 100 persons, while the downstairs rooms consist of a gymnasium, dining-room, library and reading room, kitchen, bath and wash rooms, and a large study-room used for boarding students.

The ladies' residence was repaired and a new part added. This was completed and occupied September 1, 1903. Each lady has a living and a sleeping room, and they feel grateful to the church for their present comfortable rooms.

Brick-layers are now busy on the Christine Faust Memorial Recitation Hall. The cornerstone of the recitation hall was laid August 10th, with impressive and appropriate services, and a special effort is being made to have this building under roof by the end of this present year.

For the grand support we have received from the people in the homeland we feel truly grateful, and we hope that with the coming celebration of the twenty-five years of mission work in Japan, which takes place in June, 1904, we may receive such contributions as will make possible the new buildings for our Boys' School, now called North Japan College. The need is very great and immediate for the Boys' School, and we have all confidence in our American friends for our future needs.

I was told by three different prominent missionaries that in their estimation our mission was "the one ideal mission in Japan."

Again thanking you and pleading for your continued sympathy and prayers, for remember, the prayers of the church are as real a factor in the work of the kingdom as is the power of God. We all depend upon the sympathy, co-operation and prayers of the churches to gain for us what otherwise might not be given.

Wishing you every blessing, I remain, In His Name,

Yours fraternally,

J. MONROE STICK.

Mary Estelle Marden.

MARY ESTELLE MARDEN was born in Piermont, New Hampshire, her father, Rev. A. L. Marden, being pastor of the First Congregational Church in Piermont, for nearly twenty-five years.

Several years after Rev. Marden's death, the mother with three sons and one daughter, removed to Allentown, Pa., the birthplace of Mrs. Marden. Here it was that Mary completed the Grammar School and High School courses, graduating from the latter as salutatorian of her class, in 1891.

After teaching one year in the public schools of Allentown, she entered the senior class of the Keystone State Normal School, graduating in 1893 as valedictorian of that class.

Miss Marden was then recommended for the position of assistant principal in the High School at Lansdale, Pa., where she remained in the teaching service ten years, at the same time completing a course in elocution at the Mount Vernon Institute of Elocution and Languages, Philadelphia.

On resigning from the High School in June, 1903, Miss Marden immediately commenced preparations to sail for Japan, where she became the wife of Rev. Allen K. Faust, whom she will hope to assist in his mission work in Sendai, under the direction of the Reformed Church.

Stamp Notes.

It is astonishing what one can learn from a small assortment of foreign stamps. Is it history? Take Cuba. Here is one with the head of the old King of Spain. One of a later issue has the baby face of the young king; one still later shows the young king as a youth; then there is the one-cent stamp of the United States with the words "Cuba de Peso" printed on the face. Could the story of Spain's fall and American supremacy be shown any clearer? Then there is the present issue, the herald of the new republic. France shows the same fluctuations between Empire and Republic, the stamps changing as the government changed. Do you want to study geography? There is the map of the Isthmus of Panama on the stamps of the Colombian Republic, the map of the British possessions of the world on the two-cent Canadian stamp of 1898, and the map of San Domingo. Are you interested in foreign scenery? Here is a view of the Liandovary Falls printed in two colors on the stamps of Jamaica. Tasmania has a series of view stamps, and the harbor of Honolulu is shown on the stamps of the Hawaiian Islands. Malta shows a view of Valetta on the one-farthing stamp. Many collectors arrange their duplicates in a blank book, assorting them according to the picture on the stamp. Such a collection is interesting and instructive. Thus there would be pages devoted to animals, scenery, maps, royal families and rulers, pictures of natives, coats of arms, ships, agricultural scenes, and many others.

The engravers are at work on the new two-cent stamp. The same portrait of Washington will be retained, but the lines will be deepened and heavier. This is made necessary by the use of red ink—the color determined upon by the Union Postal Union for all issues of the denominations of ten centimes or its equivalent. The inscriptions will be retained, but they will be rearranged to a view of making them more easily readable.

Christ Reformed Church, Altoona, Pa.

CHRIST Reformed congregation, Altoona, Pa., was organized forty years ago, with a few dozen members, under Rev. Cyrus Cort, D. D. His successors were Revs. A. C. Whitmer, J. M. Titzel, D. D., D. S. Diffenbacher and J. F. Moyer, the present pastor. Today the congregation numbers over 600. It has besides aided in establishing two sister congregations in this city, viz., Trinity and Grace. On June 21 of this year, this congregation dedicated its handsome new Gothic church, costing about 35,000. It is 120 feet long and 86 feet wide, including the parsonage. Both are built of Hummelstown brownstone. The finishing furnishings are of oak. The windows, all of which were presented, are of art glass and handsome design. The church contains an auditorium, Sunday-school room, Ladies' Parlor, Festal Hall. The parsonage which adjoins the church contains ten rooms and a pastors' study. It is heated with hot water. The church is heated with steam. The church is well located and is one of the handsomest in central Pennsylvania. It is a monument to the zeal and energy of pastor and people.

The Builders.

All are architects of Fate,
Working in these walls of Time;
Some with massive deeds and great,
Some with ornaments of rhyme.

Nothing useless is, or low;
Each thing in its place is best;
And what seems but idle show,
Strengthens and supports the rest.

For the structure that we raise,
Time is with materials filled;
Our todays and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build.

Truly shape and fashion these;
Leave no yawning gaps between;
Think not, because no man sees,
Such things will remain unseen.

—Longfellow.

NECROLOGY.

Ordained Ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States who have died during the year intervening between October 1, 1902, and October 1, 1903.

REV. PETER D. SCHORY was born near the beautiful city of Berne, Switzerland, March 4, 1809, and died in Lancaster, Ohio, May 1, 1903, aged 94 years, 1 month and 27 days. He received his early education in his native city and in the Normal School at Fehlenberg. At the age of 23 years he emigrated to America, and having a great desire to prepare himself for the gospel ministry, yet poor and without sufficient means he found friends who provided him with funds which gave him the privilege of attending the University of New York for two years, and a like term at Princeton. He completed his theological course at Andover, and after a satisfactory examination he was licensed and ordained a minister of the gospel in the German Reformed Church. He began his labors in New Holland and New Providence, Pa., which he served five years from 1844-49. He then accepted a call to the Mt. Bethel charge, Pa., which he served for four years. On a visit to Ohio, the then far West, he visited a number of charges, where he preached with great acceptance, and which also no doubt induced him to take up the work in this state. It is not definitely known when he accepted a call to the Lancaster, Ohio, charge, which formerly consisted of the Lancaster, Sugar Grove, and Clearport congregations. Some of the manuscripts of his sermons bear the date of 1857. He served the charge with great acceptance, and his work in the charge resulted in reviving and strengthening the work. He was married twice. A number of years ago, owing to the infirmities of age, the deceased father laid down the active duties and responsibilities of the ministry and gave his time largely to horticultural pursuits, in which he took great delight and pleasure. He, however, took deep interest in the church, faithfully attending the services as long as it was possible and giving help, encouragement, and advice to the various pastors who served since his time the Lancaster charge. It was always a delight for him to greet these pastors and inquire of the progress of the Lord's work.

REV. ABRAHAM BARTHOLOMEW was born in Dannersville, Northampton County, Pa., March 17th, 1833, and died at Lehighon,

Pa., August 15th, 1903, aged 70 years, 4 months and 28 days. He was a son of George H. and Hannah Bartholomew, and was the eldest of eight children. His first educational training he received in the public schools. Later on he entered the Classical Academy at Easton, where he came under the molding influence of Dr. Van Deever, and the Rev. Dr. Apple, men known for their strong intellectual ability and positive Christian character. Liberally prepared according to the facilities of that day, he then entered the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, where he was brought, among others, under the tuition of two men whose names are familiar, not only to the Church, but even to the entire theological world, Rev. Drs. Philip Schaff and Bernard C. Wolff. He was licensed as a minister of the Gospel by East Pennsylvania Classis at Fogelsville, in the spring of 1861. His first charge was Nazareth, where he served a small congregation for two years, teaching school during the winter. In 1864 he removed to Lehighon, where he has since lived, and served nine congregations at different times. He was well-known in the Lehigh Valley. Nine years ago, owing to physical infirmities, he was obliged to resign his charge, and from that time on he has lived in retirement. Very seldom could he leave the house, but he bore his daily cross as a humble follower of the Christ. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Rev. Calvin E., of Cressona, Pa.; Eugene U., of Easton; two sisters, Mrs. Jonathan Knauss, of Bath; Mrs. William J. Evans, of Slatington, and one brother, Rev. Allen R. Bartholomew, D. D., of Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. LUCIAN JOHN MAYER was born in West Brunswick, Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania, August 14th, 1834, and died in Philadelphia, Pa., July 27, 1903, aged 68 years, 11 months and 13 days. After attending public school he entered the preparatory department of Muhlenberg College, in Allentown, after which he went to Lancaster and was graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1858. In the autumn of the same year he entered the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, from which he was graduated with the class of 1860. He was licensed in the same year by Lebanon Classis. His first field of labor was the Mercer charge. After serving this charge several years he took charge of the Clarksville Mission in Mercer County. His next field of labor was the Sharon charge, in the same county, consisting of three congregations. In the year 1866 Mr. Mayer was elected pastor of the Boyertown charge. Here he labored twenty-one years. In 1888 he removed to Saegertown, Pa., and for several years supplied vacant charges. In 1891 he accepted a call to the Reamstown charge, residing at Denver. In 1894 he removed to Forreston, Ill., and served that charge until disabled a short time ago. About eight months ago Rev. Mayer visited Boyertown, and upon his return home was taken ill. About ten days ago he was brought to the residence of his daughter in Philadelphia, where he died, on Monday, July 27.

REV. ISAAC A. SITES, son of George and Susanna Sites, was born August 9, 1846, in Fairview, Randolph County, Indiana, and died March 10, 1903, of pneumonia, having attained the age of 56 years, 7 months and 1 day. He was baptized in infancy and later received into the church by the rite of confirmation, having previously received a course of instruction in the Scriptures and the Catechism. He early became impressed with the desire to enter the ministry, and accordingly shaped his studies with that end in view. After the completion of the usual preliminary studies in the common schools and the Academy, he entered Heidelberg College, pursuing a special and select course. In due time he entered Heidelberg Theological Seminary, completing the course and graduating in May, 1870. The deceased continued in the active work of the ministry almost uninterruptedly from May, 1870, until last fall, when failing health induced him to give up the pastorate and to remove to Tiffin, Ohio. Unfortunately, the material is lacking at the present moment for a full account of his work, but from various sources we gather the following facts: His first charge was New Jefferson, and then Dakota, Ill. Afterward he was pastor successively at Freeport, Ill., Columbus Junction, Iowa, Dakota a second time, Ada, Ohio, Fostoria, Navarre, Ada again, and finally South Bend, Pa. During several years he was financial agent of Northern Illinois College, and for a number of years he edited, in connection with his pastoral duties, a religious periodical known as The Sentinel.

REV. CHARLES KNEPPER was born in Abany, Berks County, Pennsylvania, December 3, 1834, and died at Carnegie, Pa., April 3, 1903, aged 68 years and 4 months. He attended school at East Smithfield, Pa., studied at the Academy Towanda, Pa., and later took a four years' course at Jefferson College, Canonsburg, graduating in 1864, with honors. He attended Princeton Presbyterian Theological Seminary 1864-65, but desiring to receive a diploma from the Reformed Church, of which he was a member, completed his theological course at Mercersburg, graduating in 1866. He was licensed to preach by Mercersburg Classis in May, 1866. On August 8, 1866, he was married to Maria McNary Crouch, of Mansfield, Ohio. In 1867 they went to Forreston, Ill., where Mr. Knepper served as pastor three years. His health breaking down and having hemorrhage of the throat, he was obliged to give up preaching. In 1870 he accepted a position as president of Clarion Collegiate Institute at Rimersburg, this state. He held this position until his failing health compelled him to resign. February 2, 1872, Mr. Knepper came to Mansfield Valley, now Carnegie, and set up a printing office, expecting to stay a few months. He then went to Mansfield, Ohio, and spent a year under the care of a specialist. Becoming somewhat improved, he came back and was prevailed on to start a paper. On January 7, 1873, he began the publication of the Mansfield Item, now the Carnegie Item, the first newspaper between Pittsburg and Steubenville, which he has continuously edited since that time. In 1874 he established "The Business Man," a monthly journal devoted entirely to business men's interests, which is still issued. In 1879 he established the "Burgettstown Enterprise," which, in 1881, he sold to J. Howard Cramer, its present owner. He also established the Scio, Ohio, "Herald."

REV. G. B. WALBERT was born at Muncie, Pa., on November 7, 1862, and died at the same place June 13, 1903, aged 40 years, 7 months and 6 days. In boyhood he attended the public schools of Emaus and the Keystone State Normal School at Kutztown, where he prepared himself for a teacher. After teaching a few winters in the public schools he also taught a few terms at Palatinate College, Myerstown. He next entered Franklin and Marshall College and graduated with honors in 1886. He then entered the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, from which he graduated in 1889. The Reformed Churches at Orwigsburg and McKeansburg being vacant at the time, he was elected pastor of said charge, where he started upon an active ministry. He was exceptionally successful as a preacher and pastor, and at the end of four years was called to the pastorate of the New Goshenhoppen Reformed Church at East Greenville to succeed the late Dr. Weiser. He continued to preach there until June, 1902, when he was compelled to cease work, and resigned as pastor on account of ill health. Deceased was president of the East Greenville School Board up to the time of his resignation. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Ruth and Irene. Mr. Walbert was a young man of fine attainments, and his early disability and death are much regretted. His sufferings were at times very great, but he bore them with Christian fortitude. Latterly he greatly longed to depart and be at rest.

REV. REUBEN GOOD was born in Berks County, Pennsylvania, near Rehrersburg, on July 8, 1818, and died at his residence in Tiffin, Ohio, May 31, 1903, aged 84 years, 10 months and 23 days. He was the descendant of German-Swiss ancestors, among whom were those who followed the profession of teaching. When about eleven years old he attended a classical school of a certain Mr. Dawson. Afterwards he clerked in a store four years. The whole family removing to Mercersburg, Pa., we find Reuben and his brother, Jeremiah, entering Mercersburg College in 1833, where they graduated in 1842. In the spring of 1843 he returned from Winchester, Va., where he had been teaching and entered the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg. Upon his graduation from the Seminary he was licensed to preach the gospel by Lebanon Classis, May 15, 1845. He was ordained at Greenville, Ohio, and labored as Exploring Missionary in Northern Indiana two months, and in the vicinity of Dayton, Ohio, two years. When the Synod of Ohio, in 1850, transferred its institution of learning (afterward Heidelberg College) from Tarlton to Tiffin, Ohio, Rev. Good was elected Professor of Mathematics. From 1851 on, he held the chair of Natural Sciences in this institution for forty years. He at one time was Stated Clerk of Miami Classis, and likewise of Tiffin Classis. He also served in the office of classical and synodical president. In connection with his college duties he preached for many years, as well as delivered many scientific lectures, especially in the line of chemistry, in the decade from 1851-61, in different parts of Seneca County. Owing to failing health the Rector retired from his professorship in 1890, when he was made Emeritus Professor in the institution for the remainder of his life, and he had also the degree of Doctor of Science conferred upon him.

REV. LEWIS HAMILTON KEFAUVER was born near Middletown, Frederick County, Maryland, January 25th, 1827, and died in Tiffin, Seneca County, Ohio, on Saturday, April 25th, 1903, aged 76 years and three months. Baptized in infancy, he was confirmed January 21, 1847, becoming a communicant member of the Reformed Church of Middletown. He was married to Amanda Esther Routzahn, April 12, 1855. He was educated in the English branches at the Academy in Middletown, Md. On April 5, 1844, he was indentured to the cabinet making trade, in which he served an apprenticeship of three years. In the fall of 1848, about the 25th of October, he matriculated as a student in Marshall College at Mercersburg, Pa., in the freshman class. He graduated from the college September 6, 1852, and completed his course in theology in September, 1853. He was licensed to preach the Gospel on October 27, 1853, by the Eastern Synod of the Reformed Church, in Philadelphia, Pa., and was ordained by a committee appointed by the Maryland Classis, on January 11, 1854. He labored as pastor at Fairfield, Pa., 1853 to 1857, at the Second Reformed Church, Greensburg, Pa., 1857 to 1861; at the First Reformed Church, Dayton, Ohio, 1861 to 1863, and at the First Reformed Church, Tiffin, Ohio, 1863 to 1893. He served as Secretary of the Board of Beneficiary Education from 1880 to 1895, as a member of the Board of Trustees of Heidelberg College, 1864 to 1900; as treasurer of the same, 1890 to 1901, and as Acting Chancellor, 1894 to 1899. His life will long be remembered as one filled with much faithful service to the Master.

REV. JACOB DAHLMAN, D. D., was born in Germany, April 11, 1831, where he received part of his education. Coming to this country, he entered Franklin and Marshall College and graduated in the class of 1860. He served many German congregations of the Church, during a long pastorate of some forty years. Within the last ten years he has been an efficient member of the Board of Foreign Missions, and his place upon this Board will be hard to fill. He died at his home at Glade Run, Warren County, Pennsylvania, on Wednesday, December 24, aged 71 years, 8 months and 13 days. Funeral services were held in Glade Run on December 26th and in Buffalo, N. Y., on Sunday afternoon, December 28th. Burial at Buffalo. He was for a long time pastor in West Philadelphia, later in Akron, Ohio, and latterly at Glade Run, Pa. He was for some years assistant clerk of General Synod.

REV. CALVIN S. GERHARD, D. D., was born October 3, 1845, near Kintnersville, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Confirmed in 1861 at Petersburg, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Was married October 12th, 1871, to Emma Elizabeth Glase, at Friedenburgh, Pa. Deceased graduated with the highest honors from Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., in 1865, and delivered the valedictory. During the ensuing two years he spent as a teacher, first as principal of the Fayette Academy, and subsequently principal of the Oley Academy. He then pursued a three years' course in the Reformed Theological Seminary, at Mercersburg, graduating in 1870, and was licensed to preach by Lancaster Classis at its session in Columbia. He was ordained October 4th, 1870, by East Susquehanna Classis, Sunbury, Pa., and was pastor at Sunbury nearly 9 years; at Columbia, Pa., over 4 years, and at Reading, Pa., from 1883 to the time of his death, November 4, 1902. Dr. Gerhard was a frequent contributor to the "Reformed Church Quarterly," and some of his articles were published in pamphlet form. He was synodical editor of the Reformed Church Messenger several years, president of the Eastern Synod, which convened at Harrisburg in 1891; received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Franklin and Marshall College in 1891, and published a volume on "Death and the Resurrection" in the spring of 1895. He was one of the organizers and the first president of the Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church, and a member of the Board of Home Missions. From December, 1885, to February, 1888, he was a member of the Reading School Board, and always took a deep interest in education, good government and the welfare of the city. He was elected president of the General Synod at Tiffin in 1899, and presided at the opening session of the General Synod at Baltimore last May. Dr. Gerhard was one of the leading, and one of the most influential, men in the Reformed Church. He was a close student, a clear thinker, a forceful speaker, and a writer of chaste and vigorous style. He was a man of strong convictions, and of great energy; he was candid and perfectly honest in his views, and in the expression of his ideas. He was successful as a writer, a preacher and a pastor.

REV. G. W. HENNING was born in Stark County, Ohio, January 5, 1833. He worked on the farm and attended the public school in winter until 17 years old; attended Massillon Union School one term; was engaged in school work about thirty years (and never failed at any examination for certificate); taught thirteen terms in district schools, eight of which were in his own home district; taught two terms in California Seminary, Washington County, Pennsylvania; was assistant teacher of Hebrew during his senior year in college, one year professor of languages in Western Reserve Seminary, two years principal of Georgetown Seminary, one year superintendent of public schools in Louisville, Ohio, and eleven years, from 1864 to 1875, principal of one of the ward schools in the city of Canton, Ohio. In March, 1851, he entered Mt. Union Seminary (afterwards Mt. Union College), from which he graduated in the classical course June 23d, 1859, taking the first honor of his class. On November 10, 1859, he was married to Miss Maria Louisa Longshore, of East Fairfield, Ohio. Eleven children were born to them. He was ordained to the Holy ministry by St. John's Classis, in July, 1863, and served St. Paul's congregation, in Marlboro Township, Stark County, Ohio, 24 years; Maximo, Ohio, 2 years; Southington, Ohio, nearly 3 years, and Maximo again in 1893 and 1894. At the time of his death, October 24, 1902, he was Stated Clerk of Ohio Synod and of Eastern Ohio Classis, and was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Alliance Hospital and Reformed Deaconess Home, of which institution he was one of the founders. He was 69 years, 9 months and 19 days old when he died.

REV. T. F. HOFFMEIER was born in Lancaster City, Pa., October 30, 1837, baptized January 1, 1838, by Rev. J. C. Baker, pastor Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pa.; confirmed by father at Somerset, Pa., fall of 1852. He studied at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., graduating with Marshall oration in the class of 1861. He took his theological course at the Theological Seminary, Mercersburg, Pa., graduating with the class of 1868. He was licensed by Lancaster Classis, Eastern Synod, at Manheim, Lancaster County, Pa., May 23d, 1868, and ordained at Landisburg, Perry County, Pa., June 29th, 1869, by a committee of Zion's Classis, consisting of Revs. William F. Colliflower, John A. Hoffheins and John Ault. He served the following charges; Landisburg, Pa., consisting of Landisburg, Loysville, St. Peter's and Germany congregations, from June 29th, 1868, to January 28th, 1872; Bloomsburg, Pa., consisting of Bloomsburg and Heller's or Emmanuel's congregations, from February 29th, 1872, to July 1st, 1876; Middletown, Md., from July 10th, 1876, to July 10th, 1897, organized April 29th, 1883, and served as supply to the Fairview or Braddock congregation, five miles from Middletown; Mt. Pleasant, Md., consisting of Mt. Pleasant, Union Chapel and Grace Trinity congregations, with Centerville or Rocky Hill as a supply, from August 11th, 1897, to the present time. Since July 15th, 1900, supply also Braddock congregation. Married, November 2d, 1869, by Rev. William Goodrich, to Miss Sallie M. Ankeney, daughter of Elder John T. Ankeney, of St. Paul's Church, near Clearspring, Md. Died, November 1, 1902, at Mt. Pleasant, Md., and was buried in the grave yard at St. Paul's Church, near Clearspring, aged 65 years and 2 days.

A New and Enlarged Edition

PARENTS

will find by inquiry that in the schools their children attend, Webster's is the Dictionary by which they are trained, and that their schoolbooks conform to this same authority. Is it not best to have the same Dictionary in the home?

The constantly increasing sale of Webster's International Dictionary proves that parents are wisely following the above suggestion.

Rev. Lyman Abbott, D.D., Editor of The Outlook, says: Webster has always been the favorite in our household.

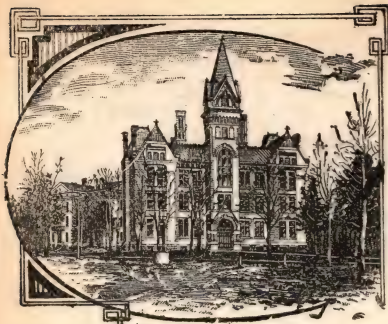

It has 2364 quarto pages with 5000 illustrations. 25,000 new words and phrases have recently been added under the supervision of W. T. Harris, Ph.D., LL.D., U. S. Commissioner of Education.

Its appendix with departments of Biography, Geography, Fiction, etc., is a packed storehouse of valuable information.

Our name is on the title-pages of all authentic Webster's dictionaries.

LET US SEND YOU FREE "A Test in Pronunciation" which affords an instructive evening's entertainment. Also illustrated pamphlet.

SCHILL'S NEW IDEA FURNACE

MANUFACTURED BY

The Schill Bros. Co.,
CRESTLINE, OHIO.

If Interested in Sanitary Heating you should not fail to Investigate.

Read what Rev. H. O. Jorris, Pastor of Reformed Church, has to say:

CRESTLINE, OHIO, March 26, 1903.

GENTLEMEN:—The two large size furnaces which were placed in our new church last fall, have been put to a severe test last winter, but, am glad to say, were not found wanting. They have done the work exceedingly well. How could it be otherwise? An article made by men of superior qualifications and character, such as the Schill Bros. are, must necessarily be of superior quality.

Yours, sincerely,

H. O. JORRIS.

“The Great Church Light”

IS MADE TO FIT ALL CONDITIONS.

AUDITORIUM LIGHTING is a specialty in itself. We make a specialty of it. The Frink Reflector is made up on special angles to meet the conditions found in each case, no two auditoriums being just alike; hence its uniform success. No church lighting should be undertaken without considering it; to consider it is to adopt.

Placed in 20,000 Churches
Alone,

In all parts of the country, as well as hundreds of THEATRES, HALLS, COLLEGES, HOSPITALS, Public and Institutional Buildings generally.

We make a line of REFLECTING CHANDELIERS and PRISMATIC SUNLIGHTS to meet every possible requirement of auditorium lighting.

Send dimensions or blue prints for estimates. All questions cheerfully answered. Literature and testimonials on request. The best the cheapest in the end.

Specified by leading engineers and architects, and used everywhere in the best class of buildings.
Designs for electricity, gas, oil, etc.

No. 2853.

For over
40 Years
The Standard of Merit.

The experience gained during this time in all lines of lighting is at your service. The Frink Reflector throws a powerful, evenly diffused, and decidedly agreeable light over the whole room, reaching to every corner. No unpleasant glare in the eyes. The best possible method of church lighting—effective, economical. All sizes and styles, from the plainest to the most ornate. Quality fully guaranteed. They light. They light. They last.

Allentown College for Women

Progressive Thorough
Safe

You will make no mistake in selecting for your daughter Allentown College for Women, Allentown, Pa.

Fall term opens September 9, 1903.

THE College is located on one of the prettiest streets in the city. Its Campus is nicely shaded. The College is a home as well as a school. The best care is taken of its students. The rooms for the boarders are of good size, well-lighted, and are furnished with entirely new furniture. The College has one of the best equipped Gymnasiums.

The government of the College is what parents should desire for their daughters. It is impartial, just, kind, considerate. It has in view the future as well as the present good of the students. It recognizes the fact that those who have learned to obey lawful authority will themselves know how to govern.

No safer school anywhere to which parents may entrust their daughters.

The faculty is able, efficient and thorough. Vassar College, Franklin and Marshall College, University of Pennsylvania, Lehigh University, Columbia University, Mt. Holyoke, Boston School of Expression, Allentown College for Women and Blairville College are represented in the faculty.

Students may pursue regular or special courses of study. Regular course in vocal and instrumental music. Voice culture a specialty. The course in Art is just what a lady needs. China decorating, pencilling, crayoning, sketching from nature, painting in oil or water colors, may be studied.

Instruction in Elocution, Oratory, and Physical Culture may be enjoyed. The methods followed are scientific and up-to-date, and adapted to bring out the best powers of the student. Culture results from such training; gracefulness in manner and bearing.

The College aims to develop character as well as intellect.

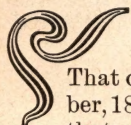

The fact that the students who have been at the College longest are most sorry to leave it, is the best proof of its efficiency.

The rates are moderate. For catalogue and other information, address

LOCAL CHURCH PAPERS PUBLISHED

For busy pastors of active congregations everywhere. We have been established twelve years and do the work economically. Our plan of combining all the church papers that we print, under one business management, and securing high-grade advertising to go uniformly through the list, give stability to the business and reduce the printing cost to each church.

THERE ARE MANY ADVANTAGES to be secured by having your church paper printed in our plant. We make a specialty of this work and have facilities for prompt and accurate production. We would be pleased to send sample copies and full information to any pastor contemplating a local church paper for his church.
